

HELIX® 1050

HexArmor®

Innovation intertwined with full-range seamless safety. That's the DNA of the Helix® Series. The hi-vis Helix® 1050 features an 18-gauge polyester/nylon blend shell that's fiberglass- and steel-free to give wearers with sensitive skin a highly comfortable protective glove in a variety of general-purpose applications.

The polyurethane palm coating delivers solid grip and abrasion resistance in dry or wet situations.
